Product Description

Stamped Nesting Doll Soft Enamel Epoxy Coated Lapel Pins With Various Clutches

Product Description:

Our Custom Soft Enamel Pins come in a variety of sizes and designs, but one of our most popular options is the Nesting Doll pin. Measuring at 40x25mm, this pin is the perfect size to attach to a jacket, bag, or hat. And with its antique copper finishing, it adds a touch of class and elegance to any outfit.

One of the standout features of our Custom Soft Enamel Pins is the epoxy coating. This adds an extra layer of protection to the pin, ensuring that the design stays vibrant and intact for years to come. Plus, the epoxy coating gives the pin a glossy finish, making it even more eye-catching and unique.

But what really sets our Custom Soft Enamel Pins apart is the ability to customize them to your exact specifications. Whether you want your company logo, a special design, or even a custom shape, our team can work with you to create the perfect pin. Plus, we offer a range of different clutches to choose from, allowing you to pick the one that works best for your needs.

So if you're looking for high-quality, customizable enamel pins with epoxy, look no further than our Custom Soft Enamel Pins. These custom metal pin badges are the perfect way to show off your style, brand, or logo in a unique and eye-catching way.

FAQ:

Q: What is a Custom Soft Enamel Pin?

A: A Custom Soft Enamel Pin is a type of lapel pin made from a metal base, which is then filled with soft enamel colors. This creates a textured, raised surface that can be used to display a wide range of designs.

Q: What are the benefits of ordering Custom Soft Enamel Pins?

A: Custom Soft Enamel Pins offer a number of benefits, including their durability, versatility, and affordability. They can be used for a variety of purposes, from corporate branding to personal expression, and can be customized to fit any design or color scheme.

Q: How are Custom Soft Enamel Pins made?

A: Custom Soft Enamel Pins are made using a multi-step process that involves creating a metal base, filling it with soft enamel colors, and then baking it to create a hard, durable finish. The pins can be customized with a range of design elements, including text, logos, and images.

Q: How long does it take to receive my Custom Soft Enamel Pins?

A: The length of time it takes to receive your Custom Soft Enamel Pins will depend on a variety of factors, including the size of your order, the complexity of your design, and your location. However, we typically ship orders within 1-3 weeks of receiving final approval on your design.
